

TDOT Environmental Studies Specialist

Historic Preservation Section – 1 Position

This TDOT Environmental Studies Specialist (TESS) position will report to the TDOT Environmental Supervisor in the Tennessee Department of Transportation (TDOT), Environmental Division, Environmental Analysis Office, Historic Preservation Section. Under general supervision, this TESS position a working level within the Historic Preservation Section and would be responsible for interpreting and applying federal historic preservation laws as it pertains to transportation projects. A degree in history, historic preservation, or another historic preservation related field is preferred. In addition, a working knowledge of Tennessee's history and architectural history and experience in writing Section 106 documents and Section 4(f) statements of average difficulty is preferred.