Environmental Division Technical Studies Office Cultural Resources Section Historian

Location: Nashville, TN

Compensation: $3,710.00 to $5,938.00/month

Overview

The Tennessee Department of Transportation (TDOT) Environmental Division Technical Studies Office is currently hiring a full-time Historian in the Cultural Resources Section in Davidson County.

The Cultural Resources Section is a vital part of TDOT's Project Development and Delivery processes as well as operation and maintenance of existing facilities. The Section is responsible for ensuring compliance with the National Historic Preservation Act, U.S. Department of Transportation Act, and Tennessee Code Annotated (T.C.A.) 4-11-111. The Section identifies and assesses effects to historic and architectural resources within a TDOT project area and conducts interagency coordination and consultation with state and federal agencies. TDOT Historic Preservation works with the project designers to avoid and minimize effects to historic architectural resources. TDOT Historic Preservation consults with the State Historic Preservation Office, the TN Historical Commission, and Consulting Parties throughout project development.

Responsibilities

- Work with staff responsible for ensuring compliance with the National Historic Preservation Act, U.S. Department of Transportation Act and T.C.A. 4-11-111
- Develop and review consultant architectural survey reports
- Conduct interagency coordination and consultation with state and federal agencies for architectural resources on TDOT projects
- Work with project designers to avoid/minimize impacts to historic architectural resources
- Assist with development of written processes, training, and QA/QC for project deliverables

Education and Experience

An ideal candidate would have a bachelor's degree in history, anthropology, or closely related field with demonstrated experience conducting architectural surveys, documenting those findings in reports, and conducting interagency consultation and coordination with state and federal agencies. The candidate would also possess the needed education and experience to meet the Secretary of the Interior's Historic Preservation Professional Qualification Standards.

Special skills, knowledge or experience required or desired

Experience interpreting roadway plans, technical writing, and excellent communication skills.
