TDOT Weekly News

Important Announcements

Week of March 21-25

- EPIC & IPD Website. Please be advised that the EPIC and IPD websites are currently down for maintenance. We hope to have both sites back up and running soon! We apologize for the inconvenience. Questions or comments can be directed to TDOT.EPIC@tn.gov or TDOT.IPD@tn.gov.
- Records Management Assessment. The HQ JKP (Nashville) Records Management Assessment conducted by the Secretary of State Records Management Division on March 1-2, 2022 was completed without significant issues. Click here to read the final report!
- Women's History Month. Join TDOT Civil Rights in celebrating Women's History Month. Click here to read employee spotlights recognizing women at TDOT.
- Urban Interstate Traffic Volumes and Fatal Trends. For updated charts and weekly reports from HQ Traffic Operations Division, click here. To visit the TN Department of Safety fatality dashboard, click here.
- Safety Monday. Let's talk about health and wellness as an occupational athlete. Are you an athlete and don't know it? Maybe, because you don't have to compete in the Olympics or play pro sports to be this kind of athlete. TDOT Safety's Errol Christos wants to tell you about a different kind of athlete in this week's Safety Monday.
- Weekly Wellness. Did you know that March 20 is "International Day of Happiness"? Spread some joy and happiness today by contributing to the Working for a Healthier Tennessee virtual joy jar. Click the link here to share your happiness!
